

Fly Swatter

CE.6

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Powers given to the Congress rather than the states is known as:   | Delegated Powers                        |
| The Powers shared by the federal and state governments is called:  | Concurrent powers                       |
| Those powers that the Constitution neither gives to Congress nor denies to the states are called   | Reserved Powers                         |
| The division of power between the states and federal government is:  | Federalism                              |
| The division of a government into three branches is called   | Separation of Powers                    |
| What document establishes a federal system of government in which the national government is supreme?  | The Constitution of the United States   |
| In Virginia, local governments get their power from where?   | The state and/or the State Constitution |
| Which government (state or national) conducts foreign policy and regulates commerce?   | National                                |
| Which branch of government, at any level, approves a budget and makes laws for the people?   | Legislative Branch                      |
| In the legislative branch, at what level (state, national or local) approves a biennial budget and exercised power under the 10 th amendment? | State Government                        |
| Which branch of government prepares the budget, makes appointments to cabinet and courts, gives pardons and administers bureaucracy?                     | The Executive Branch                    |

|  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| The term Judicial Review refers to what branch of government?  | The Judicial Branch    |
| Judicial Review is one of the checks the judicial branch has over what other branch of government?   | The Legislative branch |
| What branch of government has the following checks over the other two branches: impeaches a President, overrides vetoes, and approving federal judges?                 | The Legislative Branch |
| Which branch of government has the following checks over the other branches: vetoes acts of Congress, Appoints federal judges and calls Congress into special session? | The Executive Branch   |
| Which branch of government has the following checks over the other branches: declares laws and executive acts unconstitutional?  | The Judicial Branch    |
| What needs to be ratified by the states before it can be added to the Constitution?  | An Amendment           |
| There are only 27 of these in our government?  | Amendment              |

|                      |                                       |   |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------|---|
| Delegated Powers     | Federalism                            | The state and/or the State Constitution |
| Concurrent powers    | Separation of Powers                  | National                                |
| Reserved Powers      | The Constitution of the United States | Legislative Branch                      |
| State Government     | The Judicial Branch                   | The Legislative Branch                  |
| The Executive Branch | Amendment                             | The Legislative Branch                  |
| The Judicial Branch  |                                       | The Executive Branch                    |